

Moods and moments and memoirs of BCS Picnic, July 2010

Hey do you know today is BCS picnic in North Chagrin Reservation at Strawberry picnic area

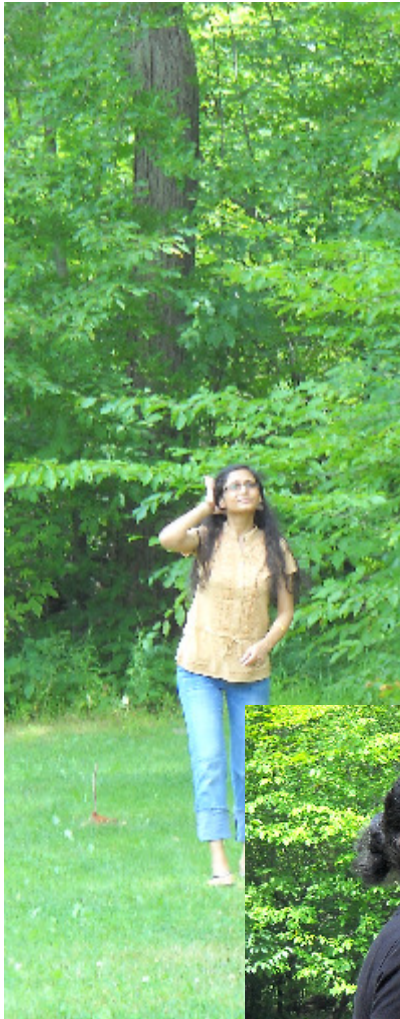

But there is a ready fire place as a reminder of Cleveland winter

It is warm, no actually hot summer sultry day, But definitely, the weather is not warmer than our heart.....

Cooking is no easy job in hot day like this but there are few smiley faces who are ready to put food on the table.....

Few relaxed
moments
of peace
and joy
after the breakfast

Everybody is having fun in their own way.....

Happy and fun filled long languid days of summer passing slowly.....

No Boudi is not throwing plate for us to eat, she is just playing, in case you do not understand..... And so is Munmun.....

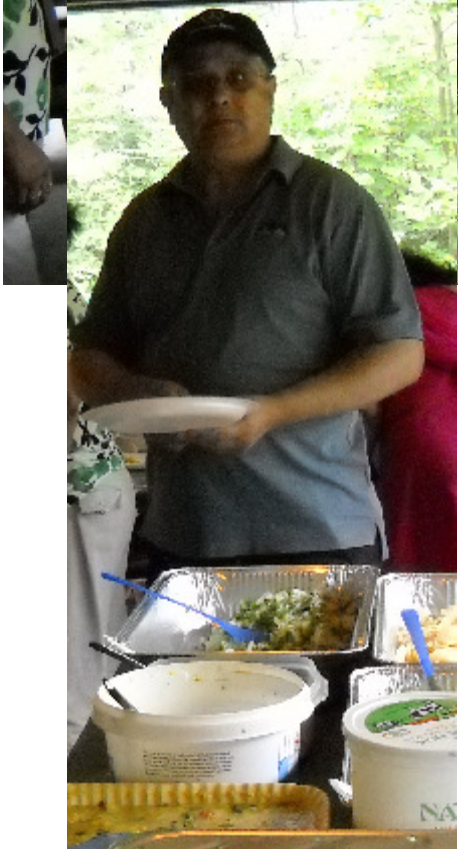

Here is the coolest one

A thoughtful one too.....

Food was good

Thanks to all who made
those wonderful
dishes...

Some recess
after the food and before the cricket
match.....

Shadow under the big oak is good after a football of an hour and so.....

Bye, See
you in next summer.....

Bye, See you soon.....
